CDW Canada named Top Volume Channel Partner by Autodesk
Technology solutions provider excels in sales for North America

Etobicoke, Ontario – May 31, 2011 – CDW Canada, a leading provider of technology solutions for Canadian private and public sector organizations, has been inducted into the 2011 Autodesk Platinum Club as Top Volume Channel Partner (VCP) in North America.

Autodesk Inc. is a provider of 3D design, engineering and entertainment software. The company's Top Volume Channel Partner Award is presented to the VCP which exceeds targets. This year, CDW and CDW Canada had the highest percentage of year-over-year increase in subscription rate.

"CDW Canada is committed to offering customers excellent service and helping them find the best possible products for their business requirements," says Daniel Reio, Director, Marketing, CDW Canada. "Whether it is software for everyday use or a solution to increase efficiency, we work closely with all our partners to ensure we provide unbiased support, knowledge and trusted advice for the technology solutions we provide. As such, it is a great honour to be recognized by Autodesk for our efforts."

CDW Canada was presented with the award at Autodesk's annual global channel partner event, One Team Conference, in Las Vegas in February 2011.
