

CDW Canada Partners with Ontario Education Collaboration Marketplace (OECM)

Etobicoke, ON — March 10, 2017 — CDW Canada, a leading provider of technology solutions for Canadian organizations in the public and private sectors, is delighted to announce its partnership with the Ontario Education Collaborative Marketplace (OECM). This multi-year relationship allows CDW Canada to supply End-User Computing Devices and Services to the publicly-funded education sector (School Boards, Colleges and Universities), and other broader public sector entities across the province of Ontario.

OECM is a trusted not-for-profit group procurement sourcing partner for Ontario's education sector, broader public sector, and other not-for-profit organizations. The agreement is designed to offer significant value in savings on a wide range of technology products and services.

This agreement allows for a more flexible and expansive vendor choice for our broader public sector customers, while still taking advantage of the expertise and technology solutions provided by CDW Canada. Products that are included in this arrangement are Lenovo desktops, laptops, tablets, peripherals, accessories and comprehensive warranty services. Other partners also included are: Barco, Buffalo, CyberPower, D-Link, Eizo, Ergotron, Fujitsu, InFocus, LapCabby, Lexmark, Samsung, Scale Computing, Viewsonic, WinMagic and more.

About CDW Canada

CDW Canada is a leading provider of technology solutions for business, government, education and healthcare. Ranked the No. 1 solution provider in Canada on the Computer Dealer News Top 100 Solution Providers list for three consecutive years, CDW Canada helps customers achieve their goals by delivering integrated technology solutions and services that help customers navigate an increasingly complex IT market and maximize the return on their technology investment. CDW Canada is listed on the Financial Post 500 list and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Vernon Hills, Illinois-based CDW Corporation, a Fortune 500 company. For more information, visit www.CDW.ca.