CDW Canada Ranked 7th on CDN Top 100 Solution Provider List

Leading provider of technology solutions climbs six spots to reach top 10

Etobicoke, ON – May 20, 2008 – CDW Canada, a leading provider of technology solutions for Canadian organizations in the public and private sectors, today announced it has reached number seven on the list of 2007 CDN Top 100 Solution Providers, up from 13 in 2006. These awards recognize the channel achievements of the industry's top solution providers as ranked by annual revenue.

"CDN congratulates CDW Canada for entering top 10 on the CDN Top 100 Solution Provider list," said Paolo Del Nibletto, Editor of CDN. "The industry continues to grow because of its focus on innovation, relationships and people. CDW Canada's continued success as a key technology solutions provider within the Canadian market can be attributed to precisely these three factors: innovative business model, laser-focus on direct customer relationship building in the SMB market, and above-industry-average investment in employee's training, learning and development."

"We are very happy with our new ranking because it means the way CDW puts customers first is working", said Mary Ann Yule, General Manager, CDW Canada. "All CDW coworkers go the extra mile and provide great service each and every day. Our customers rely on us for IT advice and technology to accelerate their business."

CDN, Canada's top-ranked IT channel publication, is a bi-monthly Canadian reseller magazine dedicated to providing resellers with timely, comprehensive coverage of news, events and issues that affect their businesses.
